Offer of scholarships for Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) for the Academic Year 2023-2024

The Government of India under the aegis of the Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) is offering, for the academic year 2022-23, 34 scholarship slots to Maldivian students to pursue UG, PG and PhD courses in Arts, Science, Engineering, Business, Tourism and others in leading Universities of major Indian cities.

In addition to this, there are 100 scholarship slots globally for Indian Culture for the study of Indian culture, such as music, dance, theatre, performing arts, sculpture, Indian languages, Indian cuisine, etc.

The scholarships, however, do not include medical, paramedical, fashion or any other 5-year integrated courses.

The scholarship is open to students between 18 and 30 years. For PhD, up to 45 years.

Interested students can apply for scholarship online ONLY through ICCR's A2A Scholarship Portal www.a2ascholarships.iccr.gov.in

The portal will be open between 20th February to 30th April 2023.

The portal contains all the relevant information for the applicants including details of all participating Universities/Institutes, courses offered, availability of hostels, application guidelines, eligibility criteria and other relevant information for helping the applicants in decision-making while applying for the academic courses of their preference.

For any further queries, interested students should contact the Director, Indian Cultural Centre (ICC), Male at Ma. Vavathi, Nikagas Hingun, 4th and 5th floor OR on phone nos. 3306612 / 3306614, on all working days during office hours. Email may be sent at diricc.male@mea.gov.in
